

St Andrew's
School 1850

OUR RAP!

The St Andrew's School
Reconciliation Action Plan.

Presented through an inquiry lens for young minds.

We welcome Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples into our classrooms.

How can we use the Kaurna language in our School?

Who can teach us the perspective of First Nations people?

Why should we understand a First Nations perspective?

What can we learn from First Nations community and family members?

How can First Nations people share and celebrate their cultures with us?

We know our Country.

How can we understand Kaurna Country through the plants we grow around the School?

How can we discover the history of this place?

How can we learn about the Dreaming of Kaurna Country?

Why is it important to know our Country?

How do we show our community that we know our Country?

How can we show Kaurna language around the School?

Why is it important to keep the Kaurna language alive?

Why do we ask people to Welcome us to Country? Who can we invite to Welcome us to Country?

We celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures.

How can First Nations artists, authors, musicians, dancers, and Elders help us understand First Nations cultures and histories?

We learn about reconciliation.

Why do we celebrate Reconciliation Week?

How can we celebrate Reconciliation Week?

What does reconciliation mean? How can we learn more about it?

How do we know we are being respectful when learning about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures?

Why are some dates important when learning about reconciliation?

How can we share our understanding of reconciliation?

We acknowledge Kaurna Country.

What is an Acknowledgement of Country?

Why is it important to acknowledge Country?

In what different ways can we acknowledge Country?

How can we show we acknowledge Kaurna Country and share this with our community?

How often should we acknowledge we are on Kaurna Country?

We respect Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultures.

How can we show our respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultures around the School?

How can we use signs, plants and language around the school to show our respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultures?

Who can help us use the Kaurna language respectfully and correctly?

How can we care for Country?

How can we fly the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags correctly?

We act against racism.

What is racism?

How do we know if we are using racist language?

How can we learn about racism?

Who does racism affect?

How can we act against racism?

We share our understanding about reconciliation.

How can we share what we learn about reconciliation?

Why is it important to share what we learn about reconciliation?

How can we share our actions for reconciliation?

We acknowledge that St Andrew's School is situated on Kaurna Land and pay our respects to its owners, past, present and emerging.

Please note, the images used within Our RAP! are licensed hire library images and not indigenous artwork.

NAKRA GUNNA
WALI

St Andrew's School

22 Smith Street Walkerville South Australia 5081. Telephone. (08) 8168 5555

standrews.sa.edu.au

